Many believers are not experiencing a healthy, vital Christian life. Maybe you re one of them. Like a patient whose heart is failing, your vital signs are troublesome. You need something to shock you back into the life God intends for you to live. In this practical and prescriptive book, David Swanson examines this condition affecting so many and identifies the vital signs necessary for creating and sustaining a healthy spiritual life: A heart for worship A passion for others An appetite for truth A willingness to forgive A purpose through mission You can live a vital, healthy Christian life that can stand up to the test of temptation and time. Vital Signs will show you how!.
