Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from The Railway Inquiry: In the Matter of Rates, Fares and Charges of Carriers by Railroad Subject to the Interstate Commerce Act That organization follows, in a general way, the organization prepared when we handled Ex Parte 74 (the rate case of August, 1920) before you. The Eastern group of railroads have subdivided themselves into a Trunk Line group, a Central Freight Association group and a New England group. The Southern group is as it was before; the Western group is as it was before. For each one of these groups there has been created an executive committee, made up of executive officers and, with them, committees of lawyers, of accountants and of traffic officers. The very best and most intelligent men that are in the service of the carriers will appear before you, in due time, to answer as completely as they can the thirteen inquiries and discuss as completely as they can the thirteen subjects outlined by you in your written paper of November 28th, and any other matters that you may, in your wisdom, bring up. Now, I think it may fairly be said that the representatives of the carriers, while appearing necessarily as representatives and, if you like, advocates of this great transportation machine, come before you also fully imbued with a spirit of looking at the economic situation of the United States and of the world as a whole. I believe these railroad officers realize that, under the very unusual economic conditions now confronting the world, the principles laid down in the Transportation Act cannot be carried out to an exact arithmetical conclusion. Reductions in Rates Already Made This spirit among...
