The English sparrow has here found a new home; we saw flocks of from 50 to 100 of them, so tame that they hopped along among the passengers, who encouraged this familiarity by feeding them with seeds from their pockets and crumbs of bread. As a consequence of their presence, the trees are entirely free from insect enemies. While strolling in the suburbs of the city, we were forcibly struck with the number of pear trees standing on commons, unprotected by fences, the branches being borne down near to the ground with luscious fruit, and we wondered how it was that bad boys and cows did not fall heir to them, as would be the case in some other cities we know, but on asking...
