Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Roman Catholic and Protestant Bibles Compared: The Gould Prize Essays The outstanding result of this contest will probably be to bring into bold relief the great difference between, and the otherwise practical unity of, the Roman Catholic and the Protestant Bibles. The great difference between the versions is the presence in the Roman Catholic Bible of the Apocrypha. The collection of books so named is rejected by Protestants as uncanonical. The American Revised Version does not even allude to the existence of the Apocrypha. Compared with this difference between the two versions all other differences are insignificant. Whatever may be the merits or the defects of expression in either, and however important may be the correction of textual errors by devout and enlightened scholarship, both versions contain the same and the complete message of the Gospel of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.
