Pixyjack Press, Inc. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 388 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 1.0in. Her name is Salia. She's a prophetess of doom and a dangerously talented sorceress with a very big secret: she knows who unleashed the virulent bacterium that destroyed the world's oilfields in 2017. Now, twenty years later, she's ready to bring back the oil for her own nefarious ends. But there's a problem. The final key to her sinister scheme lies hidden deep in the mind of Silas Teague, an invalid cared for by his sister Jennifer near the mountain town of Purgatory, Colorado. Physicist Jack Vara has just arrived in Purgatory to take over the estate of his recently deceased father, Carlos Herrera, unaware that Carlos was the engineer of Salia's problems. Or that the future of the world rides squarely on his shoulders. When Silas Teague suddenly disappears, Jack and a handful of Carlos Herrera partisans ready themselves for a standoff against Salia and her Apocalyptic Warriors in one of the most dangerous and peculiar places on earth. A thrilling, mind-expanding tale filled with colorful characters whose adventures make it impossible to put the book down. Even in the midst of the raw situations, I loved the gentle sweetness flowing through the entire story. Winds of Purgatory is highly entertaining yet it makes you think twice about the ever-tightening grip of the oil industry. - Kathleen O. , Minnesota I absolutely love this book! A supernatural, post-apocalyptic twist is not something I would normally read, but I got hooked on the fascinating characters and action, not to mention the rich settings of Colorado, my home state. Now I want the sequel! - Ina W. , Colorado This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg,OR, La Vergne,TN. Paperback.
