Excerpt: . . . unto thee, in weeping, fasting, and praying: spare thy people, whom thou hast redeemed with thy precious blood, and suffer not thine inheritance to be destroyed, and brought to confusion. Fasting thus used with prayer is of great efficacy, and weigheth much with God. So the angel Tobit 12. cao Raphael told Tobias. It also appeareth by that which our saviour Christ answered to his disciples, demanding of him why they could not cast forth the evil spirit out of him that was brought unto them. This kind, saith he, is not cast out Mark 9. 20. but by fasting and prayer. How available fasting is, how Mattl7zil much it weigheth with God, and what it is able to obtain at his hand, cannot better be set forth, than by opening unto you, and laying before you some of those notable things, that have been...
