

Kings, Killers and Kinks in the Cosmos

By Robert Egby

Three Mile Point Publishing. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 410 pages. Dimensions: 9.5in. x 6.7in. x 0.9in. RIDING THE COSMIC FLOW The author started his early life as an avowed atheist yet while suffering a disease which a doctor termed fatal, a spirit appeared and told him he would not die. His great-grandmother, a Seer, predicted his life, but he refused to believe her-until it started happening. Doors opened as if by magic. Work in a unique film studio in England, living in a desert tent in Egypt, an act in a local variety show got him into professional broadcasting, journalism and news photography. He became an international correspondent meeting kings and killers. One gunman saved his life-twice. He was arrested in Baghdad for photographing kings eating and in Cyprus he scooped a major Press award for a newpicture. Strange Cosmic energies called kinks stopped him from being in a major British train crash and sailing on a troopship that sank. A spirit voice warned him of an air attack and again saved him from walking through a Lebanese minefield. The voice warned him as bullets smashed through his hotel room. In all this, he suffered from a negative ego but...
